
VOLUNTEER PACT

Volunteerism is the cornerstone of the Conservancy's historical grassroots efforts to preserve and enhance the natural beauty and ecological integrity of Riverside Park.

We thrive on community involvement, fostering an atmosphere of partnership, belonging, and joy between our dedicated volunteers and staff for the benefit of the flora, fauna, and friends of the Park.

● ● ● ● CORE VALUES ● ● ● ●

RESPECT

We are considerate of others. We recognize that everyone has their own background and experiences that enrich our diverse community.

In our interactions, we extend grace, compassion, and patience while remaining accountable for our impact.

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP

The landscapes are not just home to us. We strategically create and plan out safe, sustainable, and adaptive habitat for native species to thrive in our changing climate.

TEAMWORK AND COLLABORATION

Our partnership stems from our shared passion for this natural area of New York City, connecting our staff, volunteers, and park patrons.

We strive to navigate challenges together with a transparent, community-first approach.

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

As known community ambassadors of the Conservancy, we bring a sense of fun and humor to our work as we share teachable moments with the public.
